SECRETARIAT OF THE
ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA

Nirvachan Sadan, Ashoka Road, New Delhi-110001

No.181/2/2005 (PIO)

Dated: 15th September, 2005

To

✓ The Chief Electoral Officers of all States
and Union Territories.

Subject: Right to Information Act, 2005- Designation of Public Information Officers and Assistant Public Information Officers- regarding.

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to say that the Government of India has passed the Right to Information Act, 2005, and the same has been published in the official gazette of Government of India on 21st June, 2005. It provides that the Act shall come into force on the one hundred and twentieth day of its enactment.

Under Section 5 of the said Act, every public authority shall, within 100 days of the enactment of the said Act, designate as many officers as the Central Public Information Officers or State Public Information Officers, as the case may be, in all administrative units or offices under it even at the sub-divisional level or sub-district level.

The Commission has decided that the following officers may be designated as Public Information Officers (PIO) and Assistant Public Information Officers (APIO) in the offices of Chief Electoral Officers:-

Sl.No.	Officers in the Office of CEO	Designated as
1.	Joint CEO or Dy. CEO where there is no Joint CEO	Public Information Officer
2.	Assistant CEO or any officer equivalent to Asstt. CEO	Assistant Public Information Officer

It has also been decided that District Election Officers may be asked to designate suitable officers as Public Information Officers (PIO) and Assistant Public Information Officers (APIO) in their respective offices.

You are requested to take necessary action and intimate the names and addresses of the designated officers to the Commission within one week from the date of issue of this letter.

Yours faithfully,

(RAJESH AGGARWAL)
DIRECTOR (ADMN.)

No. 181/2/2005 (PIO)

Dated: - 10th October, 2005

To

The Chief Electoral Officers of all States
and Union Territories.

Subject: Appellate Authority in respect of the Office of the Chief Electoral Officers and the Office of District Election Officers.

Sir/Madam,

I am directed to draw attention to Section 8 Sub-section (iii) of the Right to Information Act, 2005 wherein the particulars of the Appellate Authority need to be mentioned by the Public Information Officer (PIO) when the PIO rejects a request for information.

2. In this connection, it is stated that under Section 19(1) of the said Act appeal against the decision of the PIO can be made to such officer who is senior in rank to the Central Public Information Officer or the State Public Information Officer as the case may be.

3. In view of the above, the Commission has decided to designate the Chief Electoral Officers (CEOs) as the Appellate Authority in their offices for the purpose of the Right to Information Act, 2005. In so far as the Appellate Authority for the Office of the District Election Officer (DEO) is concerned, an officer, who is senior to the PIO of the District in terms of Section 19(1) of the Act, or the DEO may be designated as the Appellate Authority.

Yours faithfully,

(RAJESH AGGARWAL)

RIGHT TO INFORMATION ACT, 2005
INFORMATION IN RESPECT OF THE ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA

(i) The Particulars of the Commission organization, function and duties.

Election Commission of India is a permanent Constitutional Body. The Election Commission was established in accordance with the Constitution of India on 25th January 1950. The Constitution of India has vested in the Election Commission of India the superintendence, direction and control of the entire process for conduct of elections to Parliament and Legislature of every State and to the offices of President and Vice-President of India.

- (1) Originally the Commission had only one Chief Election Commissioner. It currently consists of Chief Election Commissioner and two other Election Commissioners.

The Commission has a separate Secretariat at Nirvachan Sadan , Ashoka Road, New Delhi, Consisting of about 350 officials, in a hierarchical set up.

Two or three Deputy Election Commissioners who are the senior most officers in the Secretariat assist the Commission. They are generally appointed from the national civil service of the country and are selected and appointed by the Commission with tenure. Directors, Principal Secretaries, and Secretaries, Under Secretaries and Deputy Directors support the Deputy Election Commissioners in turn. There is functional and territorial distribution of work in the Commission. The work is organized in Divisions, Branches and Sections; each of the last mentioned units is in charge of a Section Officer. The main functional divisions are Planning, Judicial, Administration, Information Systems, Media and Secretariat Co-ordination. The territorial work is distributed among separate units responsible for different Zones into which the 35 constituent States and Union Territories of the country are grouped for convenience of management.

At the state level, the election work is supervised, subject to overall superintendence, direction and control of the Commission, by the Chief Electoral Officer of the State, who is appointed by the Commission from amongst senior civil servants proposed by the concerned state government. He is, in most of the States, a full time officer and has a small team of supporting staff. (For further details please see Commission's website at <http://www.eci.gov.in>)

(ii) The powers and duties of its officers and employees.

The Election Commission is empowered to fix and announce the dates for various elections. Revision of electoral rolls, and approval of polling stations. Appointment of Chief Electoral Officers in each State & Union territories, designation of District Election Officers, Returning Officers, Assistant returning Officers, Electoral Registration Officers, Assistant Electoral Registration Officers etc. The Chief Electoral Officers, District Election Officers, Electoral Registration Officers, Assistant Electoral Registration Officers, Returning Officers, Assistant Returning Officers, are State Government Officers designated under Representation of people Act, 1950 and Representation of People Act, 1951. They carry out Actual field works in the revision of electoral rolls and conduct of elections.

(iii) The Procedure followed in the decision-making process, including channels of supervision and accountability.

The Commission transacts its business by holding regular meetings and also by circulation of papers. All Election Commissioners have equal say in the decision making of the Commission. The Commission, from time to time, delegates some of its executive functions to its officers in its Secretariat

There is functional and territorial distribution of work in the Commission. The work is organized in Divisions, Branches and sections; each of the last mentioned units is in charge of a Section Officer. Under Secretary or Branch Officer looks after two or three sections. Secretary, looks after one or more zones. The main functional divisions are Planning, Judicial, Administration, Information Systems, Media and Secretariat Co-ordination. The territorial work is distributed among separate units responsible for different Zones into which the 35 constituent States and Union Territories of the country are grouped for convenience of management.
